COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES REPRESENTED

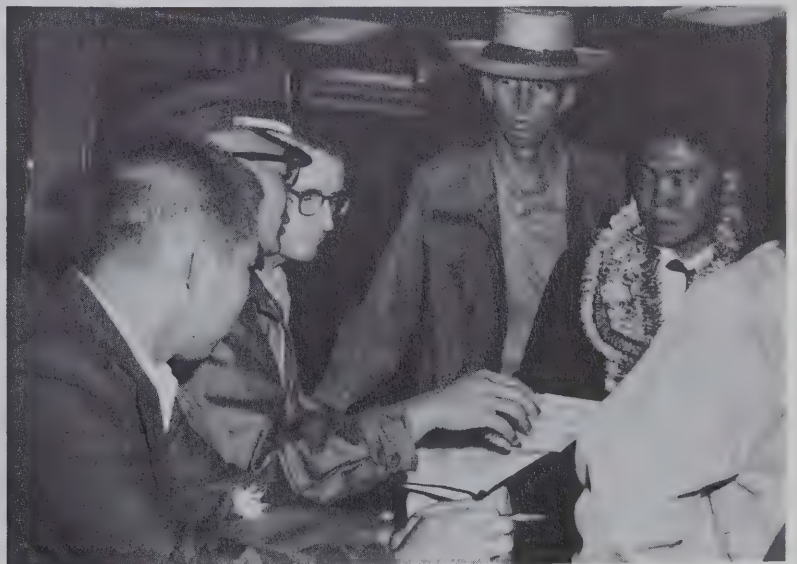

Beginning a new life.

Quite a change.

North Fort Lewis — our summer home.

Just in from Hawaii.

As good as my hometown tailor!

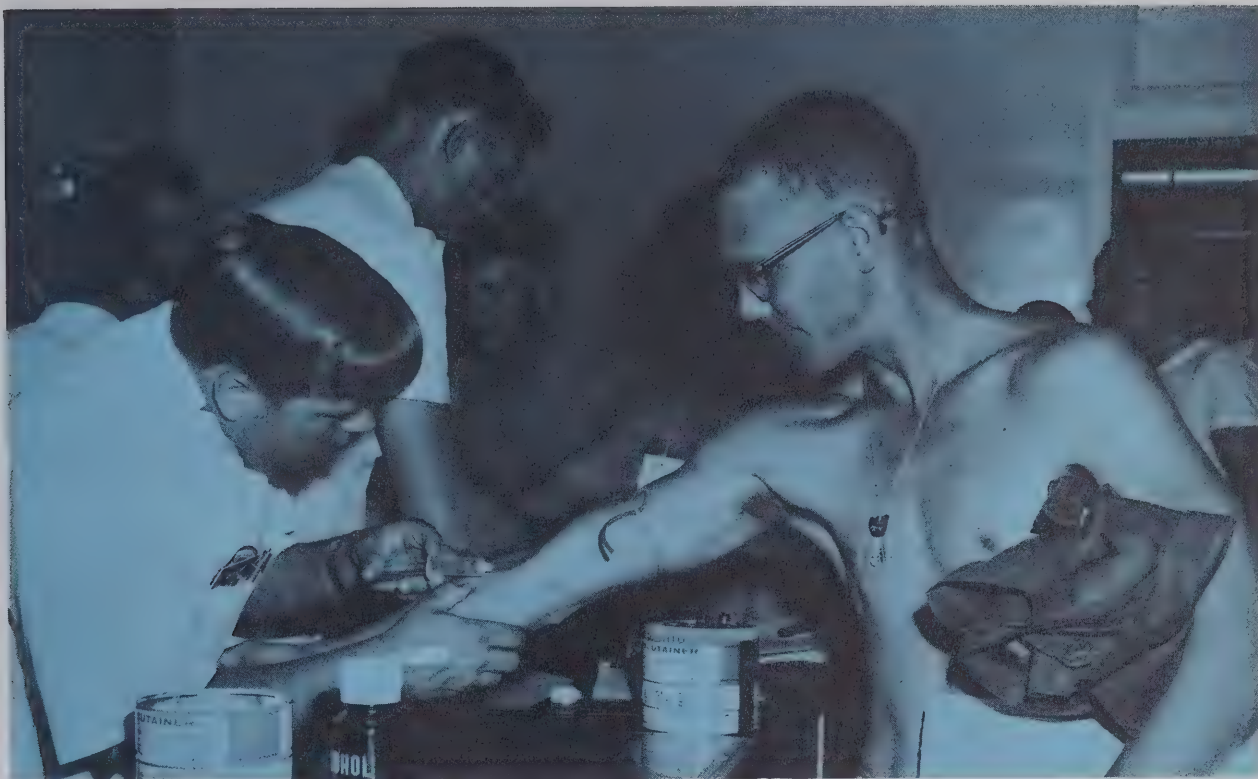

Do we really use all of this?

But I like them the way they are!

I don't know what it is!

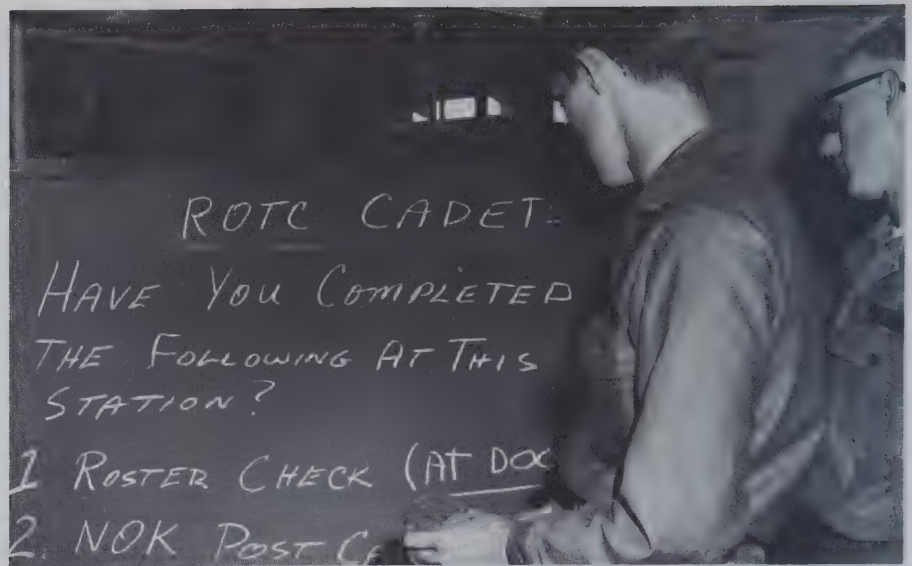

Why should I use Right Guard?

I tell you I feel fine!

You'll get used to it.

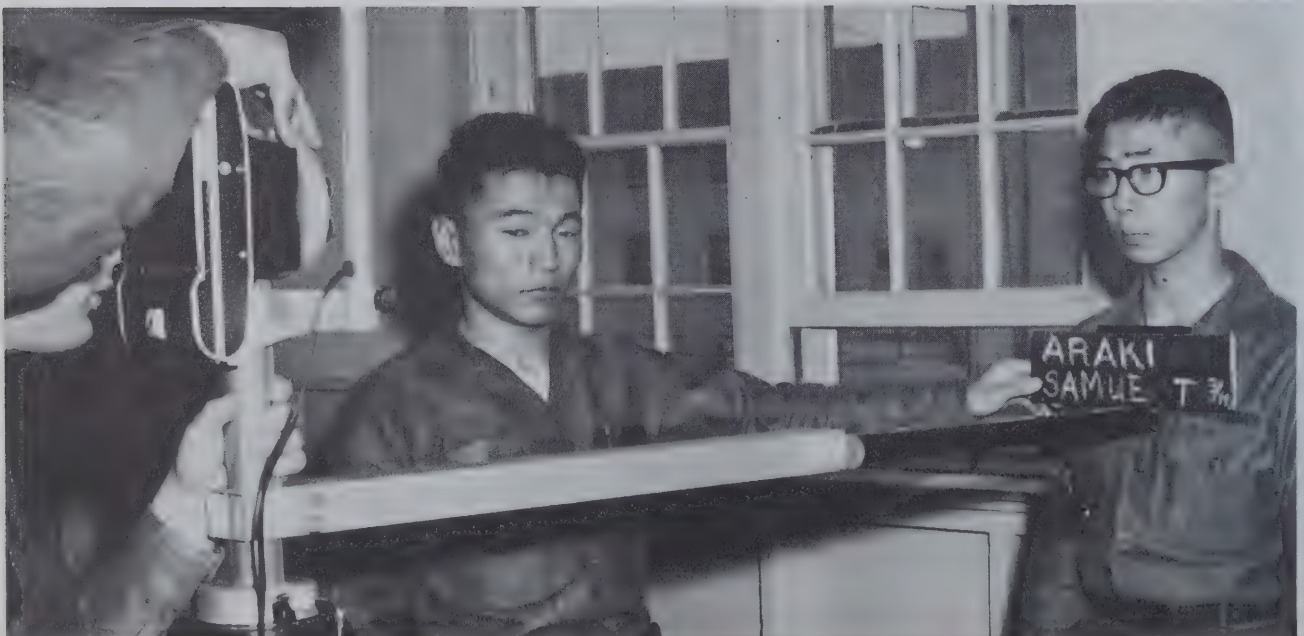

Checking the checklist.

It won't be long now!

Are you sure I'm in the right place?

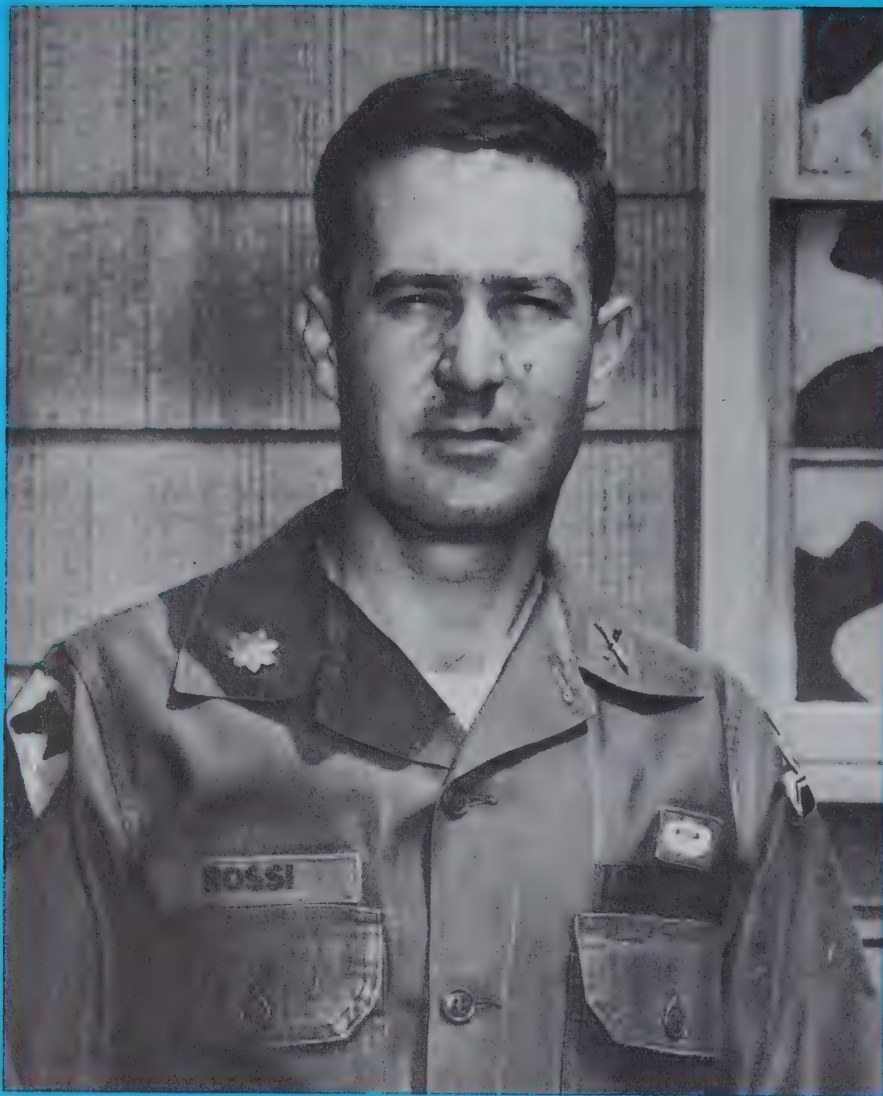

"Smile though your heart is breaking."

ROTC

SUMMER CAMP 1969

ALPHA COMPANY

MAJOR ARNOLD T. ROSSI was born in Rome, Italy and attended schools in Europe and the United States. He received his bachelor's degree in history from the University of San Francisco (class of '59) and at the same time completed the ROTC program and received a commission in the Artillery.

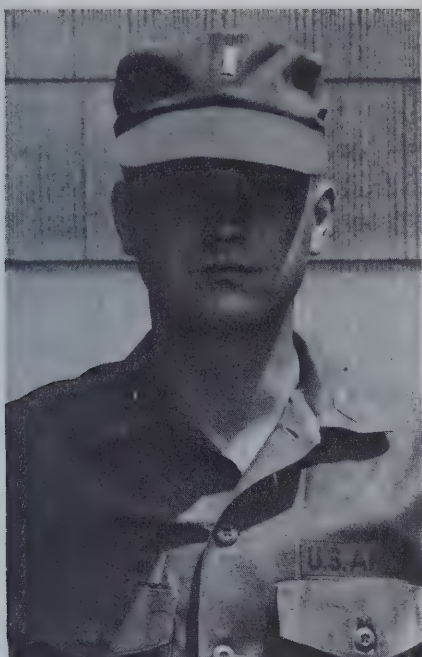

After completion of the Artillery Officers' Basic Course in 1959-60, he reported for duty with the Southern Europe Task Force in Italy where he served as executive officer, battery commander, and in his third year as assistant S-3 for Training and Special Weapons.

In 1963-64 he attended the Career Officers' Artillery Course at Forts Sill and Bliss. Upon completion, he attended the Nike Hercules course and was assigned to the Washington, D.C. Defense. There he served as assistant S-4 on the 35th Brigade staff and for the most part as Battery Commander of A Battery 4th Battalion 1st Artillery.

In 1966-67, Major Rossi was assigned to the 1st Cavalry Division then operating in the central highlands of Vietnam where his duties were equally divided as Battery Commander, Assistant S-3 Division Artillery and Artillery Liason Officer to the 1st of the 5th Cavalry.

Since his return from Vietnam in the summer of '67 he has instructed the MS II's and MS III's at California State Polytechnic College.

His decorations and awards include the Bronze Star, Air Medal and Commendation Medals. He has also been awarded the Parachutist Badge.

DELTA COMPANY

MAJOR ROBERT H. GRASSI is an Assistant Professor of Military Science at the University of Utah. He was born in 1937 in Walla Walla, Washington, and there he also spent his childhood. He attended Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington, and in 1959 graduated, receiving a baccalaureate degree.

Commissioned through the ROTC program, Major Grassi entered military service immediately after graduation. After completing Infantry Basic Officers' Course and Airborne School at Fort Benning, Georgia, he was assigned to the 4th Armored Group in Germany. While in Germany, he served in a variety of troop assignments. In 1964, he was assigned duties in South Vietnam. As the Senior Military Advisor to the Republic of South Vietnam's 35th Ranger Battalion, he advised the battalion in tactical and logistical matters. After his seventh month with the battalion in the field, he was reassigned to the Republic of Vietnam (RVN) Infantry School as an advisor to the RVN cadre.

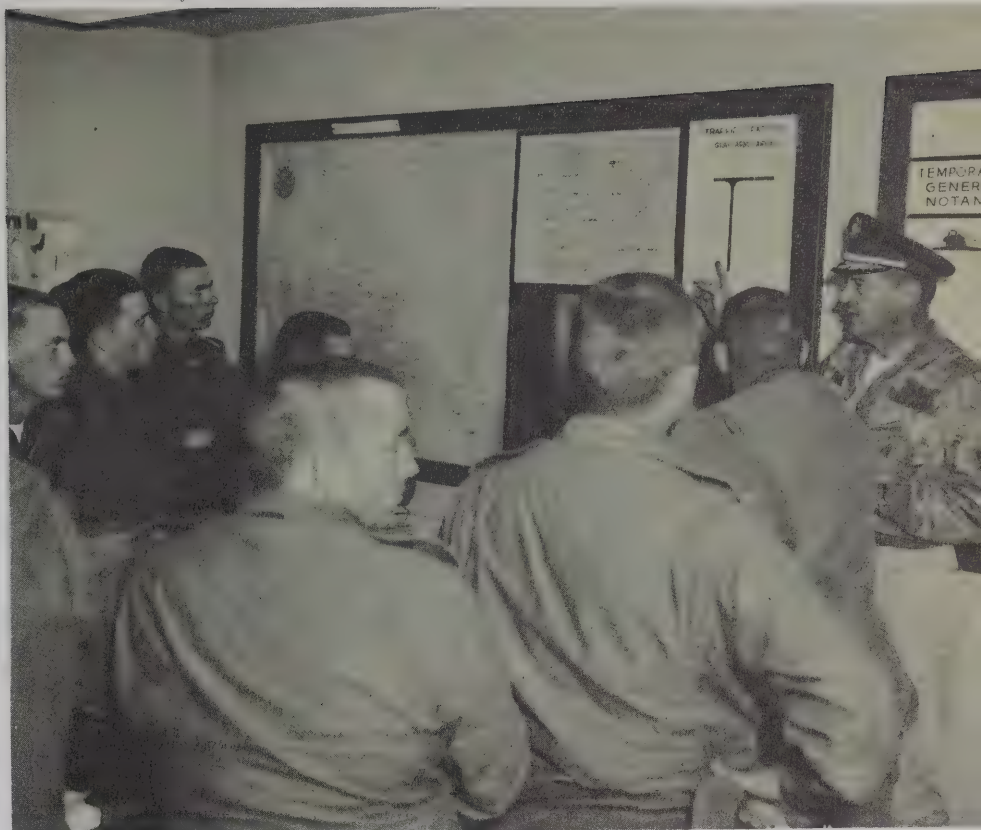

Once again in December, 1967, he was selected for duty in South Vietnam. He served as an Assistant G13 Plans Officer for Headquarters II Field Force in III Corps Tactical Zone, which is the area in the vicinity of Saigon.

On completion of this tour, he joined the Military Science Department at the University of Utah.

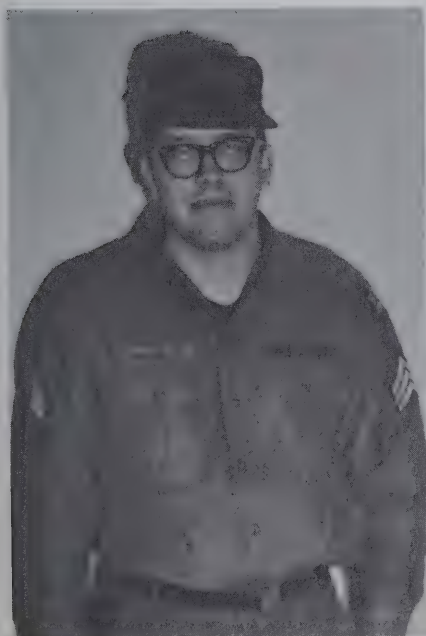

Major Grassi has attended the Basic and Advance Infantry Officers' Courses at Fort Benning, Georgia.

MAJOR EUGENE B. MILLS graduated from the University of Nevada in June of 1956 with a B.S. degree in Chemistry. He was commissioned in the Chemical Corps as a Reserve Officer. After completing the chemical Basic Officers Course at Fort McClellan, Alabama, he was sent to the Chemical Depot in Korea. From March '57 to June '58 he served as chief of the Maintenance Division. Upon returning to the United States, Major Mills was sent to Dugway Proving Ground in Utah. From June '58 to December '58, he was assigned to the 46th Chemical Company (SG) as executive officer. In December he was reassigned to the Chemical Test Branch where he served as a Test Officer for the next 3 years. In January 1962, he returned to Fort McClellan and attended the advanced course and prefix course. From June '62 to June '65, Major Mills was assigned as a reserve advisor in Buffalo, New York. He again returned to Fort McClellan where he served for one year as Group S-4 and four months as Battalion Executive Officer in the 100th Chemical Group. Before being sent to Vietnam in March '67, he attended the MATA Course at Fort Bragg and the short Vietnamese Course at Monterey. In Vietnam he served as the assistant Provincial Advisor for Psyops in Binh Long. He is presently assigned to the Brigham Young University as assistant Professor of Military Science.
